VOLUNTEERISM AT ITS BEST

- Cub Scouting is a family program and adult involvement is essential.
- Parents are the source of Scout leadership
- Scouting is designed to allow even the busiest parent to be involved
- Allows you to teach by example and impact quality time with your son

UNIFORM INFORMATION

Uniforms may be purchased at the following location:

Catalina Scout Shop

2250 E. Broadway Blvd.

Tucson, AZ 85719 ph: 520-750-9877

Cost of uniforms:

- The uniform shirt, badges, neckerchief for the Den and belt run about $50; the hat is optional.
- "Class B" t-shirts. Cost about $15

Note: Uniforms can be expensive. Garage sales, Goodwill stores, resale shops are good places to find used uniforms. There are also used uniforms available for sale at the Scout Shop. Please speak with your Den Leader if a uniform is a financial burden for you and your scout.

REGISTRATION

Cub Scouts must be registered to participate in the scouting program. A basic registration fee is charged for each child each year.

Boy's Life magazine is not required but is highly recommended. Boy's Life is a monthly magazine and is fun to receive in the mail!

Adult registration includes a semi-monthly subscription to Scouting magazine and the Catalina Council newsletter. Adult registration is required for Lion and Tiger Cubs and encouraged for all other ranks. ALL adult scouts must take Youth Protection Training, and submit their completion certificate with their registration forms.

BASIC REGISTRATION: $135.00 per year

Boy's Life* MAGAZINE: $12.00

ADULT REGISTRATION: $57 (paid by Pack 107 for volunteer leaders)

PLEASE MAKE CHECKS PAYABLE TO PACK 107
